

THE VALE
LONDON

Mao Tai Cloth MTS004 Magenta

Named for a town in Guizhou province, where tlan (spirits) still dance in sacred groves and wells, Mao Tai is a fine linen, digitally printed in the style of Yaoban tie-dye techniques. The pattern itself is inspired by a traditional Miao skirt from the Vale archives. This multipurpose fabric comes in seven rich colours, including the customary indigo tones favoured by Miao artisans.

Pattern: Tie-Dye
Colour: Pink, Magenta
Composition: 100% Linen
Width: 150cm / 59.1"
Horizontal Repeat: 45cm / 17.7"
Vertical Repeat: 39cm / 15.4"
Cleaning: Washable 30°C
Uses: Multipurpose, 15,000 Martindale
Collection: World's End Collection

Horizontal Repeat: 45cm / 17.7"

